Authenticating Your Angular SPA with ASP.NET Web API and Auth0
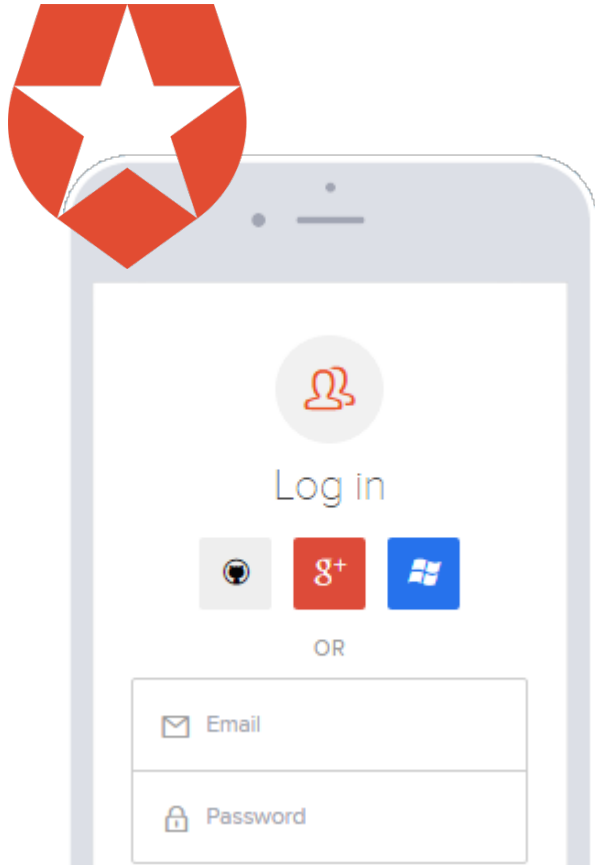

An Introduction

Ajden Towfeek

@ajtowf | www.towfeek.se

Why Auth0

- Login & Signup

- Enterprise Integration

  - SAML and WS-Federation

- Social Logins

  - Facebook, Twitter, Google, Linked In

- Two-Factor Authentication

Log in

OR

Email

Password

Auth0 Overview

Apps → Auth0 → Users

Apps/APIs   Connections

- Custom credentials: username/passwords

- Social network logins: Google, Facebook, Twitter

- Enterprise directories: LDAP, Google Apps, Office 365

- Password-less systems: TouchID, one time codes on SMS.

Prerequisites
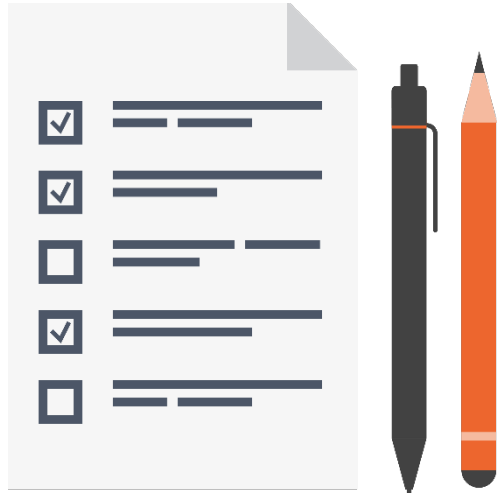

- Visual Studio

- ASP.NET Web API

- AngularJS

- C# and JavaScript

What We Will Build

AngularJS

Auth0

ASP.NET Web API
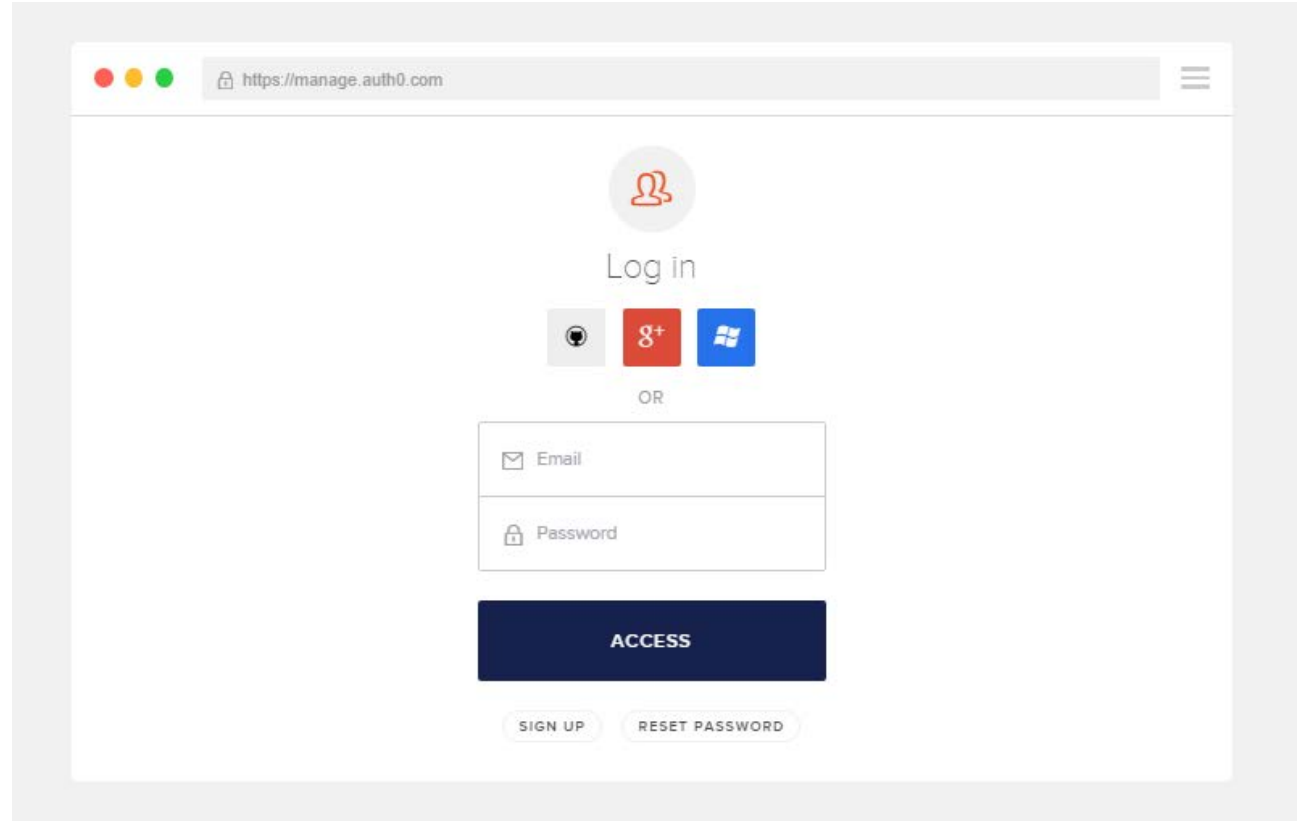

- AngularJS SPA Frontend

  - View Orders and Shipments

- ASP.NET Web API Backend

  - Secure API Controller

- Auth0

  - Connect Your App
 - Choose Identity Providers
  - Add Users & Access Analytics

Getting Started

1. Create Account

2. Choose Identity Providers

3. Choose an SDK

4. Hook It Up

Demo

Register Free Developer Account

In Conclusion

- Auth0: Authentication as a Service

  - Login
  - Registration
  - User Management

- Registered Developer Account

- Connections

  - Custom credentials
  - Social logins
  - Enterprise Integration
  - Password-less